Frederic Noel appointed Chief Operating Officer at LINDAL Group

Hamburg, Germany – May 17th, 2021

Leading aerosol dispensing experts, LINDAL Group have appointed a Chief Operating Officer, Frederic Noel, to lead the company's vision to enhance operational excellence.

Frederic joins LINDAL following a 20-year tenure at global materials science and manufacturing company, Avery Dennison Corporation, where he took the lead across various manufacturing sites throughout Europe. Along with his role as Vice President of Operations and Supply Chain for Europe and MENA, and his most recent nomination of VP General Manager for Graphics Solutions, his career has seen him drive major transformation in a diversity of settings, while successfully leading a business and improving profitability.

Frederic's new appointment represents LINDAL's commitment to further optimise and future-proof its existing supply chain, providing an enhanced and more sustainable process that anticipates the developing needs of customers. As an international business, LINDAL plans to leverage its global reach through optimizations within its supply chain while continuing to deliver the highest quality products, on time and in full to its customers. The strategy also includes the development of its current lean manufacturing processes and adopting additional new methodologies to improve operational excellence.

Taking up the position at the company's headquarters in Hamburg, Germany, Frederic will supervise all operational activities of the Group, including manufacturing, quality and supply chain. Frederic says: "I am honoured to be taking the lead on operational excellence at such a pivotal time within the company. We will be working hard to build on LINDAL's already outstanding reputation as leading aerosol packaging experts."

Frederic will be completing LINDAL's Executive team. Katharina Lilienthal, Chairwomen of the Board of the LINDAL Group said: "Frederic's combined engineering, operational & business experience, along with his impressive record of implementing operational excellence globally, brings huge value to LINDAL at a time when we are working towards providing even greater supply chain efficiencies to further benefit our customers. We are delighted to have him on board."
